Mrs Ambrose's Weekly Update

Dear Parents/Carers,

Wow, another half-term has flown by and we only have one more half-term until the end of the school year! As always, it will be a jam-packed final half-term with lots of experiences for your children to look forward to-including Sports Days, end of term treats, transitions, trips and Mazey Day of course. Watch this space for further information...exciting!

This week has highlighted the true team-spirit that we have at Pensans:

EYFS immersed themselves in creating a beach atmosphere in their outdoor classroom. They had a cheeky ice-cream and a water fight!

Godrevy and Gwithian have worked as a team during their geography based Forest School Sessions. They drew and labelled drawings of the school pond to enable others to navigate and understand the school land use.

Porthcurno became Shakspearian actors and performed Act II of King Lear at the breathtaking Minack Theatre. London and Broadway Theatres your future stars are here at Pensans! Forget Britain's Got Talent...Pensans' Got Talent! :-)

Sennen have continued to demonstrate the Pensans Way by selling ice-lollies to raise money, positive sportspersonship in their shared passion of football and making the most of their remaining time together as a class and the Year 6's, their reaming time at Pensans.

Where have the years gone?

Have a wonderful half-term all. May it be filled with sunshine, laughter and memory-making moments.

Deputy Headteacher
