Mrs Ambrose's Weekly Update

Dear Parents, Families and Friends,

After a shorter but busy first week back it's all go now for the second half of this autumn term!

This week has lots going on. Tomorrow we will observe Remembrance Day in school with a minutes silence. Thank you to those who have bought poppies and other merchandise. This will still be on sale tomorrow should children still wish to buy anything.

This week is anti-bullying week and on Tuesday we are excited to invite back our friends from the Anti-Bullying Alliance who will be doing an assembly and workshops with our children. This will also be our Odd Socks Day where we ask everyone to wear odd socks - Sock it to the bullies!

At Pensans School our Anti-Bullying Week 'Choose Respect' call to action: From playgrounds to parliament, our homes to our phones, this Anti-Bullying Week let's 'Choose Respect' and bring an end to bullying which negatively impacts millions of young lives. This year, we'll empower children and young people to not resort to bullying, even when we disagree and remind adults to lead by example, online and offline. Imagine a world where respect and kindness thrives - it's not just a dream, it's in the choices we make. Join us this Anti-Bullying Week and commit to 'Choose Respect'. What will you choose?

On Thursday School photos will be taking place. Family photos will start at 8.30a.m in the school hall. Please come in via the school reception. Individual and sibling photos will then take place throughout the morning in school.

To end the week we have Children In Need day on Friday. Information has already gone out to children & parents. Children can wear spotty clothes, Pudsey clothes or simply have a non-uniform day in return for a small donation. The School Council have met and organised a really fun day of activities: A whole school competition to make the best bandana and wear it in on that day (made at home). School council to judge in assembly and winner gets a prize from the emporium.

What class can raise the most money? - competition on just giving page
Massive Pudsey Bear shape in the hall - bring something small and colourful in from home to decorate.

There will be an Art competition - collage of Pudsey + painting - printouts or draw your own - Prize for the best. And a Penalty Shootout for each year group - certificates awarded.

So with such a jam packed diary this week I hope you have all had a relaxing weekend and are full of energy for the week ahead!

Niki Ambrose
